

Greater Richmond Bengali Association (GRBA) is a non-profit organization that promotes cultural, charitable, educational, and literary activities in the greater Richmond area.

GRBA organizes several well attended events and programs throughout the year. Cultural festivities, children's educational programs, drama, folk, modern and classical music, concerts, social networking and helping others are the foundations on which our events and programs are based.

Philanthropy is at the heart of GRBA. We have been involved locally with Feedmore, Chesterfield Food Bank, and many more.

Few reasons to Sponsor & Advertise:

- GRBA consists of a membership profile of high net worth and elite group of CEOs, corporate professionals, doctors, engineers, lawyers, scientists, entrepreneurs, etc.
- Draws a captive audience from greater Richmond area along with Charlottesville, NOVA, VA Beach, NC, etc. to its events, held several times a year
- Owns a highly visited website (www.mygrba.org) with links to sponsors and patron companies
- Publishes a highly personalized professional brochure on an annual basis
